THE A.K. MCINTYRE AWARD

Sponsored by AuPS

The A K McIntyre Prize is named in honour of the Society's first President. The Prize shall be awarded periodically to members of the Society who are judged to have made significant contributions to Australian physiological science over their pre-doctoral and early post-doctoral years.

Application & Eligibility:

To be considered for this award, nominees must:

- be proposed by two financial members of the Society, who should provide a statement of not more than 500 words summarising the nominee's achievements.
- provide a curriculum vitae and a list of published works, including conference proceedings.
- normally have graduated from their PhD or equivalent doctoral degree by 1st November not more than seven years before the year of application.
- be financial Ordinary Members of the Society (note: provisional members* are not eligible to apply)

In considering nominations, the judges will take into account the nominee's contributions to scientific meetings of the Society. No individual may be awarded the prize more than once.

The judging committee shall consist of the Executive Committee of Council (except that any member with a conflict of interest shall be replaced with another Councillor), together with up to two additional members of Council who shall be appointed for each specific round of nominations.

Prize:

The Prize consist of a medal and the sum of $1000.

The winner will be invited to present their work at the Physiological Society of New Zealand meeting in Queenstown in the following year, travel costs will be supported.

When awarded, the winner will be announced during the conference dinner at the following AuPS meeting, and in the December Newsletter.

Provisional membership. Applicants who apply for AuPS membership and pay their subscription fees have the status of provisional member until their application is ratified by a vote of the Society members at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) in November/December each year. In practical terms, this means anyone who applies for AuPS membership after the 10th December 2020 AGM won't be eligible for AuPS grants and awards until 2022. If you would like to be eligible for next year's awards you will need to apply for membership before the AGM this year.*
