

AuPS Awards and Prizes 2017

THE A.K. MCINTYRE AWARD

Sponsored by SDR Scientific

The A K McIntyre Prize is named in honour of the Society's first President.

The Prize shall be awarded periodically to members of the Society who are judged to have made significant contributions to Australian physiological science over their pre-doctoral and early post-doctoral years.

Application & Eligibility:

To be considered for this award, nominees must:

- be proposed by two financial members of the Society, who should provide a statement of not more than 500 words summarising the nominee's achievements.
- provide a curriculum vitae and a list of published works, including conference proceedings.
- normally have graduated from their PhD or equivalent doctoral degree by 1st November not more than 7 years before the year of application.
- be financial Ordinary Members of the Society

In considering nominations, the judges will take into account the nominee's contributions to scientific meetings of the Society. No individual may be awarded the prize more than once.

The judging committee shall consist of the Executive Committee of Council (except that any member with a conflict of interest shall be replaced with another Councillor), together with up to two additional members of Council who shall be appointed for each specific round of nominations.

Prize:

The Prize, sponsored by SDR Scientific, consist of a medal and the sum of $1000. When awarded, the winner will be announced during the conference dinner at the following AuPS meeting, and in the December Newsletter.
